

Tree Canopy Contribution by Zone Type: Edmonds, WA (2021)

Tree Statistics

| Zone Type               | Percent of Total Canopy |
|-------------------------|-------------------------|
| Commercial Waterfront   | 0                       |
| Community Business      | 0                       |
| Downtown Business       | 0                       |
| General Commercial      | 2                       |
| Low-Density Residential | 79                      |
| Master Plan Mixed-Use   | 1                       |
| Medical Use             | 0                       |
| Mixed-Use               | 0                       |
| Multiple Residential    | 5                       |
| Neighborhood Business   | 0                       |
| Office-Residential      | 0                       |
| Open Space              | 2                       |
| Other                   | 0                       |
| Planned Business        | 0                       |
| Public Use              | 10                      |

Legend

|                                                                                  |                         |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
|  | Trees                   |
|  | Commercial Waterfront   |
|  | Community Business      |
|  | Downtown Business       |
|  | General Commercial      |
|  | Low-Density Residential |
|  | Master Plan Mixed-Use   |
|  | Medical Use             |
|  | Mixed-Use               |
|  | Multiple Residential    |
|  | Neighborhood Business   |
|  | Office-Residential      |
|  | Open Space              |
|  | Other                   |
|  | Planned Business        |
|  | Public Use              |

Data & Methods: Data from NOAA's 2021 Urban Tree Canopy model. Tree coverage calculated using zonal statistics as the percentage of land area with tree canopy per zoning district. As of 2021, 33.27% of Edmonds is covered by the tree canopy. Note: Zeros in the summary table represent percentages rounded down from insignificant values (<0.5%). Zoning polygons are sourced from City of Edmonds GIS website.